Union Meeting at Jeffersontown, Ky., on Friday, May 31, 1861.

We are requested to call a mreting the Union men of Jefferson county, Ky., for Friday, May 31, 1861, to be held at Jrffer. contown, for the purpose of appointing delegates from Jefferson county to the Vistriot Convention, to he held at Legrange, on Monday, June 31, 1861.

It is highly important that our county should be properly represented in the District Convention. The Importance of procreding with unenimity and harmony is apparent in this juncture of public affairs The object of the Convention is to select our Congressional standard-hearer. Let the people, the Union men, be prompt in the discharge of this duty they owe the party and the country. Turn ont-turn out.
